

IN THE MATTER OF)
)
) Case No. 49S00-0504-DI-133
MARK A. LUNN)

On April 18, 2005, this Court ordered the respondent, Mark A. Lunn, to show cause why he should not be immediately suspended from the practice of law in this state due to his failure to respond to the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission's demands for a response to a grievance filed against him. The order required that respondent show cause in writing within 10 days of service of the order.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the respondent, Mark A. Lunn, is suspended from the practice of law, effective immediately. Pursuant to Admis.Disc.R. 23(10)(f)(4), the suspension shall continue until: 1) the Executive Secretary of the Disciplinary Commission certifies to the Court that he has cooperated with the investigation; 2) the investigation or any related disciplinary proceedings that may arise from the investigation is concluded; or 3) until further order of this Court.

The Clerk of this Court is further directed to issue notice of this order to the Disciplinary Commission.

The Clerk of this Court is directed to give notice of this action pursuant to Admis.Disc.R. 23(3)(d) and to provide to the Clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, to the clerks of each of the United States District Courts in this state, and the clerks of the United States Bankruptcy Courts in this state the respondent's last known address as reflected in the records of the Clerk of this Court.

Randall T. Shepard
